

San Antonio Festival (Castellon – Spain)

This festival combines the religious fervour and worship of San Antonio with the traditional pagan ritual of the winter solstice. Many municipalities in the province join this festival of fire, gastronomy and tradition in which animals always play a lead role. Two of the most interesting places for the celebration of this festival are Forcall (17 and 19 January) and Vilanova d'Alcolea (18)